

Homestead Women's Recovery, Inc.

GOAL

Homestead Women's Recovery will provide comprehensive residential drug and alcohol rehabilitation for women.

OBJECTIVES

- Teach a way of life in order to remain free of all addictive substances.
- Understand each individual experiences a combination of physical, psychological and social impairment and approach the problem with an understanding of the total person.
- Provide a therapeutic environment for each client by recognizing and respecting the individuality of each person.
- Create structured individualized recovery plans based on the specific needs of the individual by implementing all available resources.
- Provide Continuing Education for all staff.
- Determine the needs of the community Homestead Women's Recovery serves.
- Be aware of current therapy modalities.