

Homestead Women's Recovery, Inc.

PROBATION & PAROLE

Homestead strives to work with Probation and Parole Officers to maintain accountability of their respective clients. Homestead complies with all lawful probation policies and procedures

Homestead faxes a monthly progress report to the respective probation/parole officer of their respective clients at the beginning of each month.

The following issues will immediately be reported to a resident's probation officer(s):

1. Non-compliance with Homestead policies or major rule violation
2. Leaving the Homestead Program voluntarily
3. A positive (non-negative) drug test
4. Arrest
5. Prior to termination/dismissal from the Homestead Program

Homestead will assist residents with transportation to court appointments and remain with the resident at the court hearing if requested.
